WYLAND
"SEA DREAMS"

Wyland "Sea Dreams"

Internationally renowned marine life artist Wyland is one of the most celebrated and recognized artists of our time. An innovative painter, sculpture, writer, photographer, philanthropist, and filmmaker, he captured the imagination of people everywhere by completing over one hundred monumental marine life murals around the world from 1981-2008.

An avid SCUBA diver and world traveler, the Detroit-born artist has been hailed a "Marine Michelangelo" by USA Today and recognized for his art and conservation efforts by the United Nations and on the floor of Congress. His giant ocean mural on the convention center in Long Beach, Calif., covering over 3 acres, landed him in the Guinness Book of World Records for the largest mural ever painted.

Today, Wyland is one of the most collected and appreciated artists in the world with artwork in museums, corporate collections, private homes and more than 100 countries.

The "Sea Dreams" Wyland sculpture stands at approximately 29" high and 13" wide. It would look stunning on an outside patio or in an entryway.

Senior Concerns is the expert and caring choice assisting families in navigating the complex system of aging care in our community.

$5,000

Safeguard Senior Concerns' Future

The age wave is here. In the last 100 years, life expectancy has doubled. The age 65+ population growth is vastly outpacing all other age segments. In Ventura County alone, the age 60+ population is expected to increase 135% between 2010 and 2060. The age 85+ population will increase 412%. As our community ages, the need for Senior Concerns' programs and services is even greater. Senior Concerns' team of trained professional is here to walk with you and your loved one on the aging journey, connecting the dots and ensuring access to vital services that enable you and your loved ones to age in place, in community.

Your generosity will help ensure access to Senior Concerns' knowledgeable, trained professionals who offer programs and services for seniors and family caregivers throughout eastern Ventura County and western Los Angeles County

Providing the Emotional Support Caregivers Need

Senior Concerns is dedicated to supporting families and caregivers of those with Alzheimer's or a related dementia. For many, the best source of support is through regular support group meetings. Not only is it an opportunity for the caregiver to understand they are not alone in the daily struggles of caring for someone with Alzheimer's disease, but caregivers can build relationships and learn from each other, develop new coping strategies and find comfort, strength and hope in a compassionate and safe environment. Our support groups are FREE, led by trained group facilitators and are completely confidential.

Your generosity will fund one support group meeting.
