

“Legal Education for Elders” Seminar Series

Common Concerns In Long-Term Care

Most people will need some form of long-term care when they age. Jody Moore, an elder abuse attorney and senior advocate, will present on the differences in levels of care and what resources are available to help you evaluate and select a facility aligned with specific care needs.

Join this VIRTUAL workshop where we'll discuss:

- ✓ Different levels of care
- ✓ Resources available to help find a facility
- ✓ How to advocate for needed care
- ✓ Pitfalls or care concerns that commonly arise in assisted living and skilled nursing facilities

When: Tuesday, February 13th — 2:00 - 3:00 pm

Location: Zoom Virtual Seminar

RSVP: Register Online Here or Call 805.497.0189

Scan the QR Code
to register

SCAN ME

Presented By: Jody C. Moore

A founding partner with law firm Johnson Moore, Jody C. Moore primarily litigates cases involving claims of elder abuse and neglect in a nursing home or residential care facility setting, wrongful death, medical malpractice and other catastrophic personal injury cases. She is dedicated to improving community safety through legal advocacy and is an accomplished lecturer on the topic of Long Term Care litigation to lawyer groups across the United States.